

INDEX TO VOLUME XII.

1852.

ECCLESIASTICAL AFFAIRS.

ORIGINAL ARTICLES.

ADDRESS TO THE READERS, I.
Will it be believed? 17.
Theory reduced to law, 17.
The clerical declaration of dependence, 37.
The bed of Procrustes, 57.
The anti-Maynooth movement, 77.
Bishop Phillpott's defence, 97.
The University of London, 117, 217, 318, 437.
Parliament on education, 117.
The thorn beneath the rose, 137.
A bad purpose under a pious guise, 157.
Incompatible claims, 177.
Strike while the iron is hot, 197.
The Working Men's Educational Union, 217.
Parliamentary inquiry on education, 217.
The Papacy, a corpse, 238.
A gross case of persecution, 257.
Make hay while the sun shines, 257.
Tit for tat, 277.
Maynooth and the elections, 297.
The bulwark of Protestantism, 317.
Parliamentary grants to the Established Church, 317.
The electoral policy of Dissenters, 337.
Doings and anticipations, 357.
Dirt secular and religious, 377.
The letting out of waters, 377.
On which side is the bigotry? 397.
Revival of the old election cry, 417.
The University of London—equality with Oxford and Cambridge, 417.
Manner and matter, 437.
The Bennett case, 457.
Northern breezes, 458.
The optional minute, 477.
A golden opportunity, 477.
Maintaining the gospel by law, 497.
Bad blood and consequent eruptions, 517.
The elections in relation to the Church, 537.
Registration of Dissenting places of worship, 557.
Satan let loose, 557.
A half century well spent, 577.
Efforts to be free and to make free, 597.
Dissenting Members of Parliament, 617.
A politician's view of the State Church, 617.
Dissenting members of Parliament, 617.
Not bound over to play the fool, 637.
The Wesleyan Conferences, 657.
A fat and saucy sinecurist, 677.
The inch first—the ell afterwards, 677.
Episcopal authorities on the Convocation question, 697.
Mr. Trelawny on Church-rates, 717.
The Universities—what have we to do with them? 737.
The Universities—what they are and whose they are, 757.
Mercy for the Madials—Justice for Italy, 758.
Oxford—its colleges and revenues, 777.
The Papal tub to the Protestant whale, 778.
Oxford—its corruptions and abuses, 797.
A Romanist exposition of religious equality, 817.
Oxford—more abuses; and a few last words, 817.
Exeter and Lincoln—Puseyites and pluralists, 818.
The agitation against the opening of the Crystal Palace on Sundays, 837.
Modern religious journalism, 857, 877.
The poor man's church, 858.
Convocation, 877.
The Milton Club, 897.
Old clothes, 917.
The University of London—what is it? 937.
The British Anti-state-church Association, 937.
The ground of battle selected, 957.
Sunday pleasures and special services, 977.
Ecclesiastical jurisdiction in will cases, 977.
Every little helps, 977.
Christmas, 1852, 997.
Popular amusements, 1017.
Ecclesiastical prospects under the new Ministry, 1017.
Episcopal "aggression," 1017.

ANTI-STATE-CHURCH MOVEMENT.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.—Halifax, 61; Wakefield and Hull, 159; Luton, 159; Kingsland, 139; Leicester, 159; Beverley, 159; Barnsley, 159; Zion Chapel, 179; Rochdale, 180; Colne, 200; Glasgow, 199; Carlisle, 200; Kendal, 200; Boston, 219; Northampton, 219; Nottingham, 218; Preston, 219; Wrexham, 219; Walworth, 218; Bradford, 239; Manchester, 219; Birmingham, 218; Dalkeith, 259; Lymington, 218; Braintree, 279; Bristol, 299; Worcester, 218; Wallingford, 218; Hirsau, 319; Llanelli, 218; Swansea, 218; Southampton, 339; Brighton, 218; Cardiff, 218; Pembroke Dock, 218; Haverfordwest, 363; Ross, 398; Leominster, 218; Kingston, 218; Presteigne, 218; Hay, 218; Reading, 439; Newport, 439; Gloucester, 218; Islington, 218; Pontypool, 998; Newport, 218; Middleborough, 218; North Shields, 218.
LECTURES.—Banbury, 39; Rotherham, 61; Darlington, 218; Ovensend, Sowerby Bridge, Darwen, and Blackburn, 99; Merton and Dalston, 218; Liverpool, 139; Hirsau, 218; Market Harborough and Northampton, 159; Huddersfield, 180; Cockermouth, 200; Darwen, 239, 319; Gravesend, 239; Hereford, 418; Wallingford, 839; Cardiff, 998.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Metropolitan monthly meetings, 37, 138, 218, 298; great Anti-state-church triumph, 198; annual meeting, 358; the Anti-state-church Association and the general election, 478; Scottish Anti-state-church Association, 798; the autumnal meeting, 937.

THE STATE-CHURCH.

The Rev. J. Bennett and his parishioners, 2, 39, 78; the bishopric of St. David's, 2; the case of the Rev. G. E. Gladstone, 39, 238; the Diocesan Synod movement, 60; the Parliaments of Canterbury and York, 98; Oxford Diocesan Synod, 239; the Dean of Bristol on Mr. Bennett, 318; the working clergy, 398; proposed new order of ministers, 418; Tractarianism at Shoreham, 498; Convocation, 659, 838, 877, 898, 905, 918; facts and opinions touching Convocation, 678; the confessional, 769, 798, 859, 899; the Rubric and the grave, 798; annual return of benefices, &c., 1018.

CHURCH-RATES.

Mr. Middleton and the Durham justices, 60; churchyard rates in Reading, 117; the Brain-tree case, 137, 498; Folkestone, 219; South Ossett, 218; disclaim on a Catholic priest, 258; St. Michael's, Cambridge, 418; church-rate seizures, 498; church-rates at Crediton, 598; disclaim at Ipswich, 779; church-rate seizures improved, 779, 839; church-rates at North Shields, 940.

MISCELLANEOUS.

WESLEYAN AFFAIRS.—Conciliation committee, 118; soirée to Mr. Kaye, 218; conference of ministers and laymen, 238; list of government and colonial grants, 418; Mr. Stephens and the Wesleyan conference, 458; meeting of Conference, 598, 618; Wesleyan Reform, 759.

EVANGELICAL ALLIANCE.—Annual conference, 678.

CONGREGATIONAL UNION.—382, 825, 841.

A christian of a hundred thousand, 3; the two primates and the royal supremacy, 17; the Edinburgh Review and the Bishop of Exeter, 58, 98; suggestions regarding the Voluntary question, 60; contested right of patronage, 80; the Archdeacon of Coventry, 118; Non-conformists and general election, 177, 198; the Rev. Tresham Gregg in Beverley, 178; a new episcopal scandal, 179; Lord Campbell's anti-Catholic vigilance, 219; the Protestant Alliance and the members for Manchester, 218; the Bishop of Exeter and Miss Sellon, 219, 238, 258; a clerical error corrected, 219; Romish chaplains at Court, 238; expulsion of Protestant missionaries from Hungary, 218; Rev. R. Whiston's case, 257, 278, 498; Protestant dissenting M.P.'s and candidates, 258, 278; another perversion of civic pomp, 278; Lord St. Leonard's first ecclesiastical appointment, 279; parishioners locked out of their church, 218; the Edinburgh Volunteers in "caucus," 298; an intolerant presbyter, 318; report of the Oxford University commission, 397; Mr. Gladstone on religious freedom, 418; organization of the Romish Church in England, 218; the Free and Established Churches of Scotland, 419, 439; the Protestant Alliance, 438; Dissenters and the Oxford University commission, 439; taxes spent upon religious teaching, 218; the National School Society, 458; Mr. Gladstone on the union of Church and State, 218; minute of the Council on Education, 478; the Bishop of Exeter and Lord Shaftesbury, 218; the anti-papal proclamation, 218; waste of money by a religious society, 498; Church establishments and the general elections, 517; clerical outrage at Birmingham, 518; arrest of a clergyman for debt, 538; the bishop and the fox-hunting parson, 218; the church organs and the general election, 557; a Frenchman on religious parties, 558; Dr. Pusey and the Master of the Rolls, 578; an interesting centenary, 618; opinions of M.P.'s on ecclesiastical affairs, 637, 658, 697, 717; Free Church, 639, 760; Protestant Concessions in Ireland, 218; a cursing priest from Maynooth, 658; "religious equality" movement, 721, 758, 819, 839, 858; opinions of unsuccessful candidates on ecclesiastical affairs, 738; Isle of Achill, 760; the brothers Pretyman, 819; the rival Churches in Ireland, 838; re-installment of Mr. Whiston, 839; Mr. Bright on the Irish Church, 858; decline of Catholicism in America, 859; death of a Methodist celebrity, 878; Dissenters' marriages, 899; the Cambridge University commission, 940; a hard case, 1018.

ANTI-MAYNOOTH AGITATION.—59, 145, 179, 198, 239; the Protestant Dissenting deputies, 297.
FOREIGN AND COLONIAL.—Anti-state-churchism in the Australias, 18; religious intolerance in France, 200; Protestants persecuting Protestants, 258; Bible confiscation in Austria, 318; bishopric of Sierra Leone, 398; colonial bishops, 498; repudiation of the Established Church in Canada, 578; Congregational Union of Canada East, 598; religious liberty and evangelical union in Denmark, 658; Protestantism in Italy, 679; the Bishop of Adelaide, 218; the Madial, 698, 798, 805, 819, 919, 940, 1018; State provision for the diffusion of Christianity in India, 699; Cape colony bishops and clergy, 759; the Colonial Office and the Canada reserves, 778; movement against Romanism in Germany, 798; the ecclesiastical struggle in Sardinia, 1018.

RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL INTELLIGENCE.

PUBLIC MEETINGS.—London Congregational Chapel-building Society, 39; results of missions in Ceylon and India, 80; South Devon Congregational Union, 319; Baptist Home Missionary Society, 320; Baptist Missionary Society, 342; the Baptist Union, 344; Weekly Tract Society, 363; British and Foreign Bible Society, 218; London City Mission, 218; Sunday-school Union, 218; London Society for promoting Christianity among the Jews, 364; Religious Tract Society, 218; British and Foreign School Society, 218; the Ragged-school Union, 218; London Missionary Society, 379; British Missions, 380; Young Men's Christian Association, 381; Colonial Missionary Society, 398; Town Missionary and Scripture Readers' Association, 218; Somerset County Association, 419; Voluntary School Association, 218; Yorkshire Association of Particular Baptists, 479; Hackney Theological Seminary, 499; Alredale College, 218; New College, 518; Cheshunt College, 218; Bristol Baptist College, 519; Lancashire Independent College, 218; Rotherham College, 218; Northern Congregational School, 579; Horton College, 640; Stepney College, 739; Sunday-school Union, 799; London City Mission, 800; Baptist Building Fund, 820; Young Men's Association in Aid of the Baptist Missionary Society, 218.

CHAPELS OPENED AND RE-OPENED.—Ugborough, 19; South Lopham, 180; Brentford, 201; Peterborough, 218; Barnet, 220; Upper Norwood, 240; Burnley, 280; Devizes, 300; Hastings, 218; Michinhampton, 218; Morley, 218; Sunnyside, 218; Breadalbane, 301; Barnley, 319; Clayland's Chapel, 378; Aberdare, 218; Wootton-under-Edge, 460; Cheltenham, 218; Cross-street, Islington, 499; Gosport, 500; Hawes, 218; Daventry, 519; Radwinter, 538; Dunstable, 579; Gosport, 218; Kingsland, 619; Epswich, 218; Abbotsham, 640; Stow-on-the-Wold, 218; Stretford, 659; Brighton, 680; Woolwich, 740; Lowestoft, 760; Minshall Vernon, 218; Clapham, 779; Loughborough, 800; Northampton, 821; Preston, 840; Hay, 879; Poole, 218; Leeds, 941.

FOUNDATION-STONES LAID.—Westoughton, 479; Ashton-under-Lyne, 519; Manchester, 638; Shirley, 579; Killamars, 599; Ledbury, 640; Halifax, 218; Lister Hills, 659; Slough, 680; Northwich, 821; Kimbolton, 218; Davenham, 879.

ORDINATIONS AND RECOGNITIONS.—Halstead, 102; Scarborough, 218; Walthamstow, 279; Frome, 300; Patricroft, 319; Warrington, 218; Summertown, 218; Gainsborough, 218; Idle, 218; Thetford, 218; Bacup, 440; Wareham, 218; Brecon, 460; Steeple Bumstead, 479; King Stanley, 500; Mile End, 519; Craven chapel, London, 538; Tooting, 539; Eynsford, 218; St. Helier's, Jersey, 218; Egham, 218; Rochdale, 579; Pembroke, 218; Mortlake, 218; Gornal, 218; St. Neot's, 218; Reading, 599; Honiton, 218; Lavenham, 619; Lenham, 218; Lenvers Heath, 660; Berwick-on-Tweed, 680; Moy, 699; Cosely, 722; Mendlesham, 740; Dunmow, 760; Cork, 218; New Broad-street, 779; Shelton, 218; Tavistock, 800; Stand, 218; Stroud, 218; Aston-near-Thirfold, 821; Emsworth, 218; Stansfield, 840; Blaenavon, 218; Birmingham, 879; Blackburn, 218; Leamington, 900; Wavertree, 218; Wymondham, 941; Clapham, 959; Sheffield, 979; Birmingham, 998; Dudley Port, 218; Kelvedon, 1019; Truro, 218.

TESTIMONIALS.—Rev. W. Isaac, 3; Rev. R. Harris, 218; Rev. J. Gilbert, 19; Rev. A. E. Pearce, 218; Rev. T. Davis, 80; Rev. W. Blandy, 101; Rev. N. R. Massie, 119; Rev. H. J. Bells, 220; Rev. T. F. Newman, 218; Rev. F. F. Thomas, 240; Rev. W. Wild, 280; Mr. Roberts, 419; Mr. J. Rae, 440; Rev. T. Swan, 460; Rev. W. Robinson, 499; Rev. W. Allen, 619; Rev. S. Murch, 659; Rev. W. B. Landells, 699; Dr. Burns, 740; Rev. T. Craig, 819; Rev. H. B. Jeula, 879; Dr. Marshall, 900; Rev. E. Davis, 958; Dr. Burder, 978.

VALEDICTORY SERVICES.—Llanelli, 259; Godmanchester, 659; Sudbury, 218; Weigh-house Chapel, 1019.
MISCELLANEOUS.—Pye Smith scholarships, 3; lectures to the working classes, 218, 40, 319,

800, 941, 959; Congregational Board of Education, 40; Voluntary Education Conference cation, 40; Congregational Church at Port Natal 99; Jubilee of Welsh Independents, 218; 101; Jubilee of Christian Association, 119; Young Men's Christian Association, 139; funeral of the Rev. Thomas Lewis, 180; the Greek professorship at Edinburgh, 218; Congregational Board of Education, 201; expulsion of students from New College, 220, 339; Young Men's Missionary Association, 259; City of London Ragged-schools, 279; baptism of a converted Jew, 218; opening of Homerton Training-school, 304; Sailors' Improvement Society, 479; Mill-hill Grammar-school, 498; Working Men's Educational Union, 499; jubilee of the Sunday-school Union, 579, 799; Melton Mowbray, 218; Homerton Training-school—Examiner's Report, 640; Chester Sunday-school Union, 722; Young Men's Baptist Missionary Society, 739; Southampton Ragged-school, 800; jubilee celebration at Bocking, 819; resignation of the Rev. W. Jay, 821; conference of Nonconformists at Norwich, 839; Congregational chapel at Upper Clapton, 878; a mission to infidels, 900; jubilee celebration at Kirkintilloch, 218; the working classes and Mrs. Stowe, 941; interesting meeting of old scholars, 958; Irish Church missions, 959; St. Andrew's Presbyterian Free Church, Gibraltar, 218; preaching in the theatre, 218; Christian emigration, 979; proposed new chapel at Hatcham, 1019.

POLITICAL ARTICLES.

Summaries 8, 26, 46, 66, 86, 106, 126, 146, 166, 186, 206, 226, 246, 266, 286, 306, 326, 346, 366, 386, 406, 426, 446, 466, 486, 506, 526, 546, 566, 586, 606, 626, 646, 666, 686, 706, 726, 746, 766, 786, 806, 826, 846, 866, 886, 906, 926, 946, 966, 986, 1006, 1026.
A.D. 1852, 8.
The capital and labour fund, 9.
Ecclesiastical and agrarian troubles in Ireland, 218.
Embarassing kindness, 26.
The fire at sea, 27.
Liberty, égalité, fraternité, 218.
The invasion panic, 46.
The organization of despotism, 47.
The last move of the dictator, 66.
To arms!—for what? 67.
The beginning of the end, 87.
Islamism in the West, 218.
Leaning on a reed, 218.
The new Reform Bill, 107.
Privilege! privilege! 218.
The educational struggle, 108.
The Government school for adults, 126.
England, Italy, and Hungary, 127.
Slaves of the road, 218.
The new Administration, 146.
The law of partnership debate, 147.
The Militia Bill and the panic, 218.
Cui bono? 166.
The Tories in office—the people in power, 167.
Switzerland threatened, 218.
Resuscitation of the League, 186.
The British lion and the white elephant, 186.
Progress in France, 206.
Conservative modesty, 206.
Lord Derby's challenge and Lord Russell's response, 207.
The great diplomatic enigma solved, 218.
The issue to be decided, 226.
The Maynooth business, 227.
A question for the hustings, 218.
False statistics and shallow reasoning, 246.
Election notes, 247, 267, 307, 387, 487, 507, 527, 547, 567, 587.
Is it a joke? 266.
Booksellers and bookbuyers, 267.
The dumb impostor, 286.
How and by whom to govern India, 287.
Extraordinary cheek, 306.
The Militia Bill, 326.
The expected plum, 327.
The law, the sword of Damocles, 218.
The value of a shocking bad character, 346.
England's youngest daughter, 347.
Certainty versus possibility, 366.
Europe surveyed from the Champ de Mars, 367.
Trying on the old cry, 386.
The run for gold, 387.
The chaos of parties, 407.
Lord John's letter, 218.
Educational combinations, 408.
A last blow at the Militia Bill, 426.
Betting and betting-offices, 427.
A comprehensive subject, 446.
"The Isles of the (un)blessed," 447.
Nothing particular, 466.
Our Foreign-office imbecility, 467.
Gold and glitter, 486.
The sanitary sum of the session, 487.
The session of 1852, 506.
How to detect and defeat bribery, 507.
The defunct Parliament, 526.
The elections politically viewed, 546.
A profitable work of mercy, 547.
Something looming in the future, 566.
Summer pleasures for the poor, 567.
The thumbscrew adapted to modern times, 586.

The Tamworth statue, 587.
 Dreamers and drummers, 606.
 The forty-shilling freeholds and the next reform struggle, 607.
 American politics and human rights, 608.
 Too serious for laughter, 626.
 Legal hindrances to thrift, 627.
 Another sanitary delusion, 628.
 Prepared for war, 63.
 A temporary damper, 646.
 "List, oh 'list! 647.
 "Napoleon the Little," 63.
 Dum vivimus, vivamus, 666.
 Prospects of the ballot, 667.
 Payment in kind, 63.
 Life manifest in death, 63.
 The "Von Beck" case, 668.
 Earl Harewood's protracted fix, 63.
 The dead season, 687.
 Death on the rail and in the mine, 63.
 The Tom Thumb of constitutional monarchies, 688.
 Cholera at our gates, 63.
 The Manchester Free Library, 706.
 Bitter and sweet, 707.
 "Uncle Tom's Cabin," 63.
 "The lone star," 726.
 Our colonies—to the rescue! 727.
 Watching the progress of the shadow, 728.
 Soldiering at a discount, 63.
 Bovine heroes, 63.
 The Duke, 746.
 Another panic, 747.
 A chapter from the history of colonization, 748.
 Duty and glory, 766.
 Observance of the laws of life, 767.
 Louis Napoleon and Victor Hugo, 63.
 Tendencies towards a people's party, 786.
 Fox or Heald for Oldham? 787.
 A constitutional question, 63.
 Poor-law pastimes, 806.
 What the ballot may do for Ireland, 807.
 Napoleonism in England, 808.
 The shilling subscription to European freedom, 63.
 France satisfied—the empire of peace, 827.
 A dissuasive from over toll, 63.
 The militia levy and the prosecutions, 828.
 The growth of a bright idea, 846.
 Be in time! be in time! 847.
 Martyr-making by law, 63.
 Prospects of the Irish Church, 866.
 The abolition of able-bodied pauperism, 867.
 Belgium and Piedmont, 63.
 Weekly Parliamentary Notes, 886, 906, 926, 946, 966, 986, 1006.
 The Manchester and Edinburgh speeches, 887.
 Parliamentary report on the Manchester and Salford Education Bill, 63.
 Death of Daniel Webster, 888.
 The Queen's speech: its ambiguities and omissions, 907.
 London in November 1852, 908.
 The Duke's funeral, 927.
 The modern exodus, 63.
 The militia prosecutions, 928.
 Homeopathy and the medical profession, 63.
 The ratification, 947.
 A true woman's mission, 948.
 The budget, 967.
 December in 1851 and December in 1852, 63.
 Too much of a good thing, 987.
 Water supply, 988.
 The phantom dispelled, 1007.
 War begun in passion and conducted with irresolution, 63.
 Once more the militia, 1008.
 The Aberdeen ministry, 1026.
 Eighteen-fifty-two in the future, 1027.
 The right thing at the right time, 63.

MIRROR OF PARLIAMENT.

DEBATES.

The Address, 84, 108, 908.
 Disturbances in Ireland, 105.
 The Kafir war, 108.
 Parliamentary reform, 109, 123, 202, 248.
 Manchester and Salford Education Bill, 122, 222.
 The militia, 123, 141, 250, 324, 350, 367, 368, 390, 408, 409, 443.
 Disfranchisement of St. Albans, 124, 202, 230, 325.
 Outrage on a British subject, 124.
 The oath of supremacy, 125.
 Investments of the working-classes, 63.
 Lord Clarendon and the Irish press, 140.
 Ministerial defeat, 141.
 Ministerial resignations, 142.
 Law reform, 202.
 Ministerial explanations, 63.
 Ministerial intentions, 223.
 Public business, 230, 440, 442.
 Lord Derby on the dissolution, 245.
 The ballot, 63.
 Tenant right in Ireland, 261, 367, 1001.
 The Maynooth grant, 305, 322, 365, 409, 445.
 The Vicar of Frome, 305, 390, 408, 445, 464, 480.
 Taxes on knowledge, 322, 388.
 Scottish University tests, 348.
 Colonial church government, 63.
 Episcopal and caputal revenues, 348, 460.
 Removal of the Crystal Palace, 63.
 Annual financial statement, 63.
 New Zealand constitution, 350, 409, 442, 462.
 The property and income-tax, 368.
 Ministerial position and policy, 368, 463.
 Proposed new constituencies, 368.
 State of the Australian colonies, 389.
 Colonial Bishops Bill, 408.
 The Spanish constitution, 409.
 Our commercial policy, 410.
 Electoral corruption, 410, 502.
 The Poor-law Continuance Bill, 410.
 Estimates, 440.
 County Elections Bill, 460.
 Commitment of Mr. Feargus O'Connor, 461.
 West India colonies, 63.
 Surrender of Criminals Bill, 462.
 Social reform, 63.
 Roman Catholic processions, 480.
 Metropolitan water supply, 63.
 Metropolitan Burials Bill, 63.
 Crime and Outrage (Ireland) Bill, 480.
 Encumbered Estates (Ireland) Bill, 481.
 Mr. Mathews's case, 63.
 The educational minute, 63.
 The colonial church government, 501.
 The Amers of Scinde, 63.
 The convention with France, 502.
 Prorogation and dissolution, 522.
 Opening of the session and election of the speaker, 889.
 Funeral of the Duke of Wellington, 910, 929.
 The Free-trade debates, 924, 948, 969.
 Crystal Palace at Norwood, 929.
 The law of Irish landed property, 929, 965.
 The financial statement, 968.
 Committee of supply, 970.
 Our sugar colonies, 988.
 Discussion on the budget, 985, 988.
 Rejection of the budget, 999.
 The Derby bribery committee, 1001.

Resignation of Ministers—explanations, 63.
 The Ministerial changes, 1022.

DIVISION LISTS.

Militia Bill, 144.
 Mr. Hume's Reform motion, 252.
 Preservation of the Crystal Palace, 350.
 Taxes on knowledge, 391.
 Free-trade, 944.
 Ministers' money, 945.
 The budget, 1002.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

THE PEACE MOVEMENT.—International addresses, 622, 705; address of the Parisian workmen, 642; letter from the Mayor of Nantes, 943.

EDUCATION.—The Manchester and Salford scheme, 128, 144; University College, 158, 518, 608, 980; analysis of the Manchester and Salford and the Public Schools Bills, 211; Home-merton Training School, 304, 722; Voluntary School Association, 340, 419, 500, 901, 1020; University of London, 369, 500, 580, 660; Congregational Board of Education, 383, 843; an old scholar's peep at Mill-hill Grammar-school, 501; Mill-hill Grammar-school, 1021.

LECTURES.—Mr. Hobbs on locks, 70; Mr. Vincent, 145, 233, 692, 709, 793, 832, 879; Mr. Mathews on American slavery, 238; Mr. Alexander Thomas, on French history, 371.

PHILANTHROPIC AND SOCIAL.—New Asylum for Infant Orphans, 45, 427, 500; British Empire Mutual Life Assurance Company, 163, 694; Railway Passengers Assurance Company, 190; Asylum for Idiots, 202; the Orphan Working-school, 220, 340, 594; Aborigines Protection Society, 220; the early-closing movement, 253; Working-men's Sabbath Protection Societies, 260; Metropolitan and Provincial Life Association, 328; London Homoeopathic Hospital, 331; Society for Improving the Dwellings of the Poor, 372; Royal Literary Fund, 378; the Sons of the Clergy, 381; Church of England Self-supporting Village Society, 413; National Temperance Society, 419; Kent Mutual (Life) Assurance Society, 434; Perpetual Investment, Land, and Building Society, 451; London Indisputable Life Policy Company, 468; Times Life and Guarantee Company, 471; Working-men's Educational Union, 497; Infant Orphan Asylum, Wanstead, 505; Scottish Temperance League, 558; Spitalfields in the country, 608; anniversary of negro emancipation, 610; co-operative conference, 611; temperance demonstrations, 622; Bethnal-green out of town, 689; National Provincial Life Assurance, 734; emigration and the home labour market, 821; address of the ladies of England on American slavery, 904; England and American slavery, 980, 996.

POLITICAL.—The National Reform Association, 41, 308, 669; Mr. Cobden on the Kafir war, 44; meetings on the Kafir war, 64, 83; Col. Thompson on the prospect of invasion, 65, 83; Parliamentary Reform, 68, 89, 163; Anti-Knowledge Tax movement, 160, 328, 830, 960; the London Reform Conference, 164, 181; revival of the Anti-corn-law League, 165, 182; meeting of Liberal members at Lord John Russell's, 208; Christian ministers and Parliamentary Reform, 280; the "people's party" in the House of Commons, 788.

ELECTION INTELLIGENCE.—General, 523, 541, 549, 559, 568, 581, 603; Greenwich and Perth, 105, 130; public meetings and candidates addresses, 163, 204, 242, 269, 285, 288, 308, 329, 351, 371, 391, 411, 428, 449, 465, 468, 488, 509, 530; ministerial re-elections, 183, 185, 210; preparations for the dissolution, 188, 210; representation of Rochdale, 241; scenes at Monmouth, 271; Mr. Disraeli and his constituents, 449; list of candidates, 508, 528; the New House of Commons, 539, 559, 581, 600, 630.

RAILWAY MATTERS.—Accidents, 6, 485, 572, 605, 612, 622, 650, 683, 700, 731, 753, 849, 862, 920, 943, 1033; railway crimes licensed, 425; railway amalgamation, 648; half-yearly report, 649; railway disaster and suicide, 665; serious collision at the Camden Town station, 849.

IRELAND.—The Ribband conspiracy, 45; murderous attacks on Mr. Chamber and Mr. D'Arcy, 69; the Limerick banquet, 82; reception of the viceroy, 210; singular charge of murder, 392; the Queen's Colleges, 404; agricultural prospects, 63; the Tenant League and agrarian crime, 425; the Irish Channel telegraph, 63; the riots in Belfast, 464; the National Exhibition, 63, 490, 533; the Government and the National Board of Education, 490; proclamation against Roman Catholic processions, 63; the social revolution, 505; installation of the Roman Catholic Primates, 533; electioneering riots, 568, 584; the exodus, 624; executions, 63; the independence of the Irish voter, 63; the six-mile-bridge conflict, 63, 445, 663, 665, 689; fatal boat accident, 645; the potato disease, 650; the Lord-Lieutenant at Galway, 663; Tenant Right Conference, 730; political harangues from the altar, 784; Mr. Bright's tour, 803; pictures from Ireland, 804; mysterious affair, 830; agrarian murder in King's County, 843; double murder near Dublin, 63; the case of Mr. Kirwan, 982, 996; memorial to Lord Eglinton, 1030.

CASUALTIES.—Colliery accidents, 6, 65, 393, 398, 404, 420, 440, 611, 1019; burning of the "Amazon," 7, 20, 25, 49, 159; deaths from a cesspool, 21; wreck of the "Rabid," 39; horrible death, 80; fatal lamp explosion, 63; mysterious death of a Wesleyan minister, 84; explosion at Edinburgh, 108; terrible floods at Holmforth, 112, 121, 140, 165; frightful death at the Brighton Pavilion, 120; fatal accident to Mr. Pilcher, 259; a man crushed by a mill, 280; loss of the "Birkenhead" troop ship, 265, 281, 371; explosion of a grocer's shop, 273; seven children burned to death, 331; a party of missionaries starved to death, 351; explosion at the South Metropolitan Gas Works, 402; fatal wages, 419; an aeronaut killed at Manchester, 449; fire at Messrs. Clowes's printing office, 460; death of a schoolmaster from starvation, 490; melancholy accident on the river, 491; frightful accident at Blackwall, 527; frightful collision on the river, 533, 640; fatal accident on the river, 548; fatal effects of the heat, 63; death in the Hampstead ponds, 591; sudden death at cricket, 63; fatal accident at Bolton, 592; mysterious case, 599; fatal steam-boat accident, 609; wreck of an emigrant ship, 624; death by lightning, 625; five persons shot, 641; death from fright, 645; fire at sea, 651, 660; shipwrecks and loss of life, 651; fatal omnibus accident, 63; fatal boiler explosions, 682, 703; child killed by a nutshell, 714; fatal carelessness of parents, 750; loss of life by fire, 752; boat accident at Aberystwith, 765; sudden death in a Wesleyan pulpit, 781; disasters at sea, 790; death from the bite of a serpent, 849; fatal consequences of indecision, 881; three men buried alive, 884; death from fright, 973; horrible case of intoxication, 1029; death from destitution, 1032.

FIRE.—Rosemary-lane and Southwark, 7; Welbeck-street, with loss of life, 83; near Bow, 90; Trinity Hall, Cambridge, 183; Poplar, 281; Tottenham Court-road, 290; on Mossland, 331; Harwell, Berks, 347; Holme Fen, Hunts, 63; Portsmouth dockyard, 378; Dockhead, 404; near St. Katherine's Dock, 479; in the Minories, 573; Bunhill-row and Goswell-road, 590; Golden-square, 610; Newcut, 63; Poplar, 648; Tottenham, 624; Mile-end and Whitechapel, 684; St. George's in the East, 736; Somers-town, 63, 752; Rotherhithe, 63.

COURT, PERSONAL, AND POLITICAL NEWS.—Appointment of Major-General Cathcart to Kaffraria, 29; ministerial resignations, 149; the new Ministers and their antecedents, 168; celebration of her Majesty's birthday, 392; State ball, 403; the Royal visit to Belgium, 649; the Queen's visit to Scotland, 685, 688, 709, 729; the new Chancellor of Oxford, 848; the Queen's return to Windsor, 829; the new Ministry, 1028.

CRIMES.—Suicide in Newgate, 5; convict meeting at Woolwich, 10; murder near Banbury, 21, 145; highway robbery near Derby, 82; charge of poisoning near Lewes, 93; suspected murder of an engineer, 155, 189; suicide from the horror of widowhood, 145; insanity and suicide from gambling, 180; murder of a girl at Bromley, 271; parental cruelty, 63; suicide of a Parisian litterateur, 283; matricide at Kennington, 291, 308; murders and suicides at Putney and Lynn, 291, 300; murder at Liverpool, 291; another Norfolk tragedy, 302; a Greenacre murder in Manchester, 331; confessions of a burglar, 379; piracy on the banks of the Trent, 392; suicide of a soldier on guard, 404; murder at Tollesbury, 63; garotte murder and robbery at Hull, 405; betting and suicide, 449; fatal stabbing, 63; case of poisoning near Wigan, 490; extraordinary murder at Sawley, 519; garotte robbery in Leeds, 570; murder by policemen at Liverpool, 573; another maniac matricide, 611; extraordinary burglary, 625; murders at Sheffield, 668, 731; jumping from Shakespeare's Cliff, 710; murders by mothers, 629; starvation and suicide, 772; double murder near Aberdeen, 798; unhappy suicide, 824; an attempt at "Burking," 840; fatal duel near Windsor, 845, 848, 862; drunken assaults, 850.

LAW, POLICE, ASSIZE, &c.—Conviction of Thomas Box, 29; trials for perjury, 63; an ingenious robbery, 63; prejudice against dissection, 63; conviction of Thalabergo, Eyres, and Kemish, for murder, 165; cases of child murder, 63; robbing omnibus proprietors, 63; conviction of Theene, Mickleburgh, and Robinson for murder, 248; convictions of Ovens and Eliza Dore for murder, 271; remarkable trial, 291; trial of Mr. Crossley and Miss Lewis, on a charge of infanticide, 63; the Rev. Mr. Gladstone, 393, 450, 470; the House-hold Narratives, 393; Vitzelty v. Illustrated London News, 63; the Jennings estates, 430; a tale of distress and depravity, 450; alleged conspiracy to rob a bullion dealer, 451; an irate Astronomer-royal, 63; public-house betting, 63; extraordinary depravity and tastes, 63; Glen Tilt, 451, 574; trial of Dr. Jabez Burns for perjury, 470; remarkable investigation, 471; the betting nuisance, 63; Dr. Achilli and Dr. Newman, 491, 504; better than fighting, 491; a Guarantee Society, 63; the Derby bribery cases, 574, 591; treatment of a citizen by the police, 574; scene in a clergyman's house, 63; pawnshop borrowed portraits, 591; robberies by a servant girl, 63; the Baroness von Beck's case, 613; libel on a fugitive slave, 63; cases of child murder, 63; a mock marriage, 63; the Rev. M. A. Gathercole again, 631; the emigration swindling case, 63; how they live in St. Giles's, 63; whitebait dinners, 63; liability of emigrants' agents, 652; a clergyman charged with forgery, 660, 665; a disputed will, 652; death in childbirth, 63; are Dissenters liable to toll when travelling to their places of worship, 63; charge of forgery against a solicitor, 665; a London outcast, 670; results of betting offices, 63; overcrowding of the River, 63; sequel to the Brighton card-cheating case, 63; charge of wilful arson, 63; trial of a policeman for murder, 63; charges of infanticide, 671; juvenile burglars, 63; disgusting depravity in high life, 63; scenes at the Midsex sessions, 690; alleged theft of a child, 63; a candidate for the cart-whip, 63; a flight of beggars, 63; professional beggars, 711; Mr. Yardley and the Militia Bill, 63; charge of starving a wife to death, 63; a desperate character, 63; the Common Lodging-house Act, 732; attempt at suicide, 63; the mock emigration agents, 771; the murderous sweep, 63, 790; outrages on women, 811; important decisions respecting cabs and railways, 830; street preaching, 63; the railway-cab question, 850, 984; imprisonment of an engine-driver, 850; a boy thief, 871; conviction of the ruffian thief, 63; the case of Miss Ann Campbell, 891; robbery of a publisher, 63; the officious official at the British Museum, 63; the Norwood Convent case, 63; conspiracy to defraud emigrants, 902; is a governess a mental servant? 63; revival of the Newman and Achilli case, 931; militia prosecutions for libel, 63; a sad story, 63; Sir Charles Napier and the Quarterly Review, 951; frauds by militiamen, 1004; poisoning by a drunken wife, 63; trial for the Hull murder, 1030; the Sheffield murder, 63; a model Irish boy, 63; more wife-beating, 63.

SCIENCE AND ART.—Winter exhibition of pictures, 84; the great globe in Leicester-square, 291; Royal Cyclorama, 371; union of literary institutions with the Society of Arts, 405; New Museum of Practical Art, 411; practical applications of science, 553; cutting the Koh-i-noor, 592; artificial productions of fish, 63; useful discovery, 683; the electric clock, 63; gigantic telescope, 63; the British Archaeological Association, 684; the British Association for the Advancement of Science, 705, 722; the calorific steam-ship, 812; the new National Gallery, 850; new pictures in the National Gallery, 1010.

NECROLOGICAL NOTICES.—Baron Kemery, 5; the Rev. Stephen Morell, 119; Rev. C. Anderson, 139; Archbishop Murray, 159; Rev. T. Lewis, 63; Thomas Moore, 168; Edward Lombe, Esq., 240; Rev. W. S. Palmer, 259; Rev. J. Irons, 63; Prince Schwarzenberg, 265; Mr. Alexander Mackay, 264; General Arthur O'Connor, 371; Rev. J. Yockney, 460; Henry Clay, 553; Rev. James Read, sen., 579; Rev. Robert Martin, 63; Mr. J. Duncraft, M.P., 585; Count d'Orsay, 623; Mr. Joseph Ady, 669; Mrs. Lalor Stiel, 63; Duke of Hamilton, 63; Mr. Samuel Hall, 686; the Duke of Wellington, 725; Rev. Joseph Gilbert, 779; Daniel Webster, 883; General Addison, 931.

TRADE AND COMMERCE.—Money Market, 13, 34, 54, 74, 94, 134, 154, 174, 194, 214, 234, 254, 275, 295, 315, 337, 395, 413, 434, 454, 474, 494, 512, 535, 555, 594, 615, 635, 655, 675, 694, 714, 735, 764, 785, 797, 814, 833, 853, 873, 893, 914, 933, 953, 973, 993, 1013, 1034; the revenue, 11, 268, 532, 809.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Engineers' strike, 6, 24, 50, 112, 131, 281, 341, 379; new bridge across the Thames, 11; Sir John Franklin, 19, 259, 282, 285, 301, 423; "fast" life at Oxford, 19; the sheriff of Northumberland and the judges, 63; metropolitan interments bill, 20; delirium produced by joy, 63; the "Magara" Royal steamer, 23; the Great Exhibition, 25, 356; a Bloomer ball of lunatics, 25; national defences, 29; steam communication with Western Africa, 50; metropolitan mortality, 53; preserved meats for the navy, 62; the Duke and the farmer, 64; testimonial to Mrs. Cowden Clarke, 63; a distillery in a coal-pit, 63; lunacy case of Mrs. Cumming, 65; history and statistics of coffee, 69; self-possession and courage, 63; discovery of a mummy in St. Stephen's, 70, 80; anti-Maynooth meetings, 81, 102; munificent donations, 82; political reunions, 90; a coroner saving a life, 93; expulsion of British missionaries from Hungary, 105, 392; social condition of the Hebrides, 118; Society of the Friends of Italy, 119, 245, 339; Mr. Feargus O'Connor, 128, 302, 331, 433, 465, 479; city improvements, 138; the public press and the new Reform Bill, 139; extramural interments, 131; London Wednesday Concerts, 145; change of Ministers, 149; the militia, 150, 161, 209, 261, 284, 291, 312, 369, 420, 750, 762, 789, 830; feminine courage and tact, 168; conflict on board an emigrant ship, 181; annual soirée of the Whittington Club, 185; the purist of the Commons, 188; statistics of places of worship in England and Wales, 190; the funeral of Thomas Moore, 205; liberation of Mr. Kaye, 208; reproductive pauper labour, 63; attempted escape from Oxford Castle, 63; stands for public vehicles, 210; capture of the sea-serpent, 63; proposed Nonconformist Club, 231, 260, 370, 761; the Morning Post and the Anti-state-church movement, 238; executions of Elizabeth Pinckard and Kala-bergo, 229; execution of Turner, 240; intended present to Mr. G. Dawson, 63; riots of coal-whippers, 63; cursing a magistrate, 244; remarkable appeal to the Queen, 258; persecutions of the French literati, 259; the Crystal Palace revisited, 268; monument to Thomas Moore, 63; execution of Sarah Ann French, 280; distress of the engineers, 281; Good Friday and Easter, 63; working man's memorial to Sir R. Peel, 63, 430; the peer and the painter, 382; facts and opinions about Schwarzenberg, 63; singular atmospheric phenomenon, 283; execution of Keene, 285; the book-sellers' controversy, 287, 301, 373, 433; the new Militia Bill, 290; retention of the Crystal Palace, 63, 808; extraordinary career of a clergyman, 291; case of Mr. Salomons, M.P., 299; execution of Evans, 301; corrupt practices at elections, 302; escaping from the "Birkenhead," 63; the Premier at Goldsmith's Hall, 63; arrival of General Bress, 308; suttee revived, 63; charge against a Ragged-school, 305; overcrowding of steam-boats, 308; cure for hysteria, 312; mariners' strike at Hull, 313; operation of the Fugitive Slave-law, 319; Lynch-law in Chelsea, 322; death of a celebrated character, 63; Earl Carlisle on self-education, 328; alleged ad-fé in Ireland, 63; the ships seen on the icebergs, 331, 450; the Electric Review, 340; three females attacked by a snake, 341; marriages in high life, 347; another Rajah in London, 370; water supply of the metropolis, 371; extraordinary story of imposture, 373; romantically successful career, 63; sticking to a husband, 63; the Chinese junk, 378; prevention of open-air preaching, 63; Mr. Disraeli and the operative engineers, 379; international postage, 383; the new Crystal Palace, 392, 405, 479, 590, 621, 849; conference of the wool trade, 393; a political pervert, 63; justice justified, 399; a hostile meeting, 63; proslavery in a workhouse, 402; supply of labour to Australia, 404; the story of a county election, 405; statistics of the Great Exhibition, 63; facts for electors, 408; Kossuth's family, 412; the Epsom races, 419; banquet at Fishmongers' Hall, 63; a clock-tower in the City, 421; the Bonner's-fields meetings, 421, 498; the political exiles, 422; a glimpse of Gibson's studio, 423; treaty of extradition, 63; the emigration movement, 424, 440, 503, 624, 650, 664, 682, 702, 736; shilling subscription in aid of European freedom, 424; Mr. Mathew's compensation, 425; gold in Fife, 63; the Norwich operators to non-electors, 430; guano, the real farmer's friend, 443; review of pensioners, 445; electric telegraph in the Bank of England, 447; the Stock Exchange and the police, 63; Mr. Roebuck on the extension of the franchise to females, 449; improvements at Billingsgate, 459; earthquake in South Wales, 464; life and death in a caravan, 465; the clergy and Chartists of Bethnal-green, 467; the detective dreamer, 470; terrific position in a railway tunnel, 479; Lord Malmesbury despatches, 483; a fugitive slave case, 484; Admiralty steamers, 485; singular prejudice against medical treatment, 63; recovery of £700 worth of jewelry, 490; gold in Devonshire, 63; libraries for the working classes, 491; regulation of time by electric telegraph, 63; three lives saved by the fire-escape, 63; hallstom at Manchester, 510; a present from the diggings, 512; clerical outrage at Birmingham, 518; riots in Stockport, 520, 619, 645, 655; awful mortality on board a merchant ship, 521; a ship sunk by a whale, 63; charge of illegal flogging, 527; criminal and destitute juveniles, 530; baptism of the Princess Gaumont, 532; riot at Wigan, 538; soirée to Messrs. Thompson and Ayrton, 572; thunder-storms, 573, 590, 663, 710; extraordinary escape of four hundred Latter-day Saints, 573; arrival of M. Kossuth in England, 591; the plague-ship, "Lady Montague," 592; inauguration of the Tamworth Peel statue, 63; wreckers at the mouth of the Thames, 609; acts of Parliament, 610; column of statistics, 625, 683, 771; the fisheries question, 629, 645, 649; a plain unvarnished tale, 648; a troop ship in a gale, 659; another Haynau demonstration, 665; the Von Beck case, 668; romance in real life, 670; inauguration of the Peel statue in Leeds, 671; scraps from foreign exchanges, 689, 704; opening of the Manchester Free Library, 699; a lucky bridesmaid, 700; literati at Manchester, 701; the cutlers' feast and the social improvement of the people, ib.; the cholera, ib., 724; the income-tax and direct taxation, 709; Mr. Cobden on the ballot, 710; the new orders in Chancery, ib.; extraordinary imposture, ib., 811; eruption of Mount Etna, 711; the miser's legacy, 723; the Capulets and Montagues at Northumberland, 729; the wonderful women of the East, 732; the Duke of Wellington, 740, 761, 788, 848; political gatherings, 749; Lord John Russell in Scotland, 769; adventures of balloonists, 770; objection to oaths, 772; the working classes and education, 780; manifestations of the agricultural mind, 781; registration decisions, 789; a negro confessor, 790; the wine duties and the temperance question, 809; return of Lady Franklin's searching expedition, 810; Dissenters at the Mansion-house, 828; the Madiahs, 832, 884; enormities practised in Bethlehem Hospital, 848; the new Crystal Palace and the Sabbath, 849, 860; central City terminus, 861; great Free-trade banquet at Manchester, 864; the anti-Sabbatarians and the Nonconformist, 881; Mr. Macaulay in Edinburgh, 882; earthquake at Liverpool and Manchester, 885; Nonconformist members of Parliament, 890, 911; Mazzini and Kossuth, 901; disastrous inundations, 902, 905, 928; funeral of the Duke of Wellington, 903; mortality on board a West India mail-steamer, 923; commercial law reform and international postage, 930; a new "Curiosity of Literature," ib.; the idiot and his buried mother, 943; the great debate and its results, 944; the Derby election inquiry, 962, 982; elopement extraordinary, 963; Camberwell new Independent chapel, 980; Freehold-land Conference, 981; Lord John Russell at Leeds, ib.; ocean penny postage, ib.; the Ministerial crisis, 1008; disgraceful scene in the Carlton Club, 1021; dreadful hurricane, 1022, 1025.

FOREIGN.

FRANCE.—Napoleon at Notre Dame and the Tuileries, 4; the reign of terror, 22; the new constitution, 42; the proscriptions, 43; confiscation of the Orleans property, 68, 90, 252, 330, 483; installation of M. Montalembert, 104; new law on the press, 120; arrest of M. Rocher, 150; foreign relations, 151; the Corps Législatif, 171, 189, 272; assembling of the legislative bodies, 252; judgment in the matter of the Orleans property, 330; the Paris fêtes, 384; refusals to take the oath of fidelity, 384, 402, 469; military degradation, 421; threats to the English press, 469; Napoleon's visit to Strasbourg, 571; fatal accident to Field-Marshal Exelmans, 589; the fête of the eagles, 643, 661; tragic occurrence, 782; the progress of the Empire, 801; pacific manifesto of the President, 805; Napoleon's triumphal entrance into Paris, 822; re-establishment of the Empire, 883, 923, 942, 963, 983; rival arming, 983; designs on Italy and Savoy, ib.; the Emperor's successor, 1023.

BELGIUM.—Another Haynau demonstration, 665, 681; ministerial crisis, 783; new press law, 911.

AUSTRIA AND GERMANY.—Revocation of the Austrian constitution, 10; new constitution of the Electorate of Hesse, 303; death and distress, 372; press regulations, 469; Jesuit missions, 483; case of Mr. Paget, 802; despotism at Vienna and Milan, 844.

PRUSSIA.—Discussions in the Chambers, 150; the Roman Catholics, 469; opening of the Chambers, 962.

RUSSIA.—The Caucasian war, 209; the Emperor's visit to Potsdam, 422; accident to the Emperor, 469.

ITALY.—The case of Mr. Murray, 151, 384, 403, 444, 469, 571; political prosecutions, 330, 552; Ministerial resignations at Turin, 403; religious persecution in Tuscany, 483, 963; attempt to poison M. de Rayneval, 503; enlistment of Protestants to defend the Pope, ib.; press prosecutions, 623; an Englishman regent of Parma, 661; the case of the Madiahs, 845, 884; change of Ministry in Piedmont, 863; Austrian executions in Lombardy, 1024.

SWITZERLAND.—Trials for insults on Napoleon, 252; Conservative triumph, 330; arrest of M. Charles, 422.

SPAIN.—Attempted assassination of the Queen, 103; the Queen's visit to St. Atocha, 145; priestly pretensions, 252; decrees relative to the press, 283; scene at a bull-fight, 385; a Spanish Thomas à Beckett, 484.

PORTUGAL.—Deputation of friends to the Queen, 403.

GREECE.—The monk Christophoros, 431;

PERSIA.—Political crisis, 10; attempt to assassinate the Shah, 803.

AMERICA.—Conflagration of the Capitol, 10; Congressional banquet to Kossuth, 63; his progress, 91, 104, 151, 190, 385; the Fugitive Slave-law, 385; tumult in Virginia, 422; Jenny Lind's farewell, 470; a fugitive slave case, 484; death of Henry Clay, 553; the fisheries question, 629, 649; horrible steamboat catastrophe, 642; election of President, 624; independent Democrat convention, 681; the order of the "Lone Star," 764; "Woman's Rights" Convention, 784; death of Daniel Webster, 883; Presidential election, 924.

CAPE OF GOOD HOPE.—The Kafir war, 7, 23, 64, 189, 209, 283, 345, 553, 724, 824, 911, 983; the constitution, 23.

WEST INDIES.—Meeting of the Jamaica Assembly, 104; sickness and distress, 444, 571; severe earthquake, 612; state of Cuba, 845.

EAST INDIES.—The Burmese war, 189, 283, 345, 681, 911, 1024; capture of Rangoon, 423; capture of Bassein, 572; destructive hurricane, ib.; conflicts at Martaban and Pegu, 644; capture of Prome, 783.

AUSTRALIA.—The gold-fields, 25, 284, 347, 388, 404, 450, 470, 485, 432, 572, 644, 764, 802, 824, 863, 924, 1024; a tragic incident at the diggings, 404; scarcity and high price of labour, 450; extensive robberies, 503; the Australian League, 724; the emigration movement, 750; Mount Alexander diggings, 783.

MISCELLANEOUS.—Attack on Logos, 23; murderous attack on an Englishman at Florence, 24; expulsion of missionaries from Hungary, 63, 105; disastrous boiler explosion near Savannah, 64; foreign refugees in London, 91; blessing the candles, 121; River Plate, 209; a Popish miracle, 252; death of Prince Schwarzenburg, 284; fatal joke, ib.; death-bed of Prince Paul of Wurtemberg, 303; speech of M. Guizot, 372; a tiger story, 385; insurrection in Asia Minor, 402; the cholera, 403, 612, 724; murder of American seamen by Coolies, 571; secret treaty, 612; destruction of the vine in Madeira, ib., 662; controversy between the Moniteur and Times, 702; eruption of Mount Etna, 724; attempt to ascend Mont Blanc, 764; an encounter on the African coast, 784; Turkey and the British loan, 836; revolution of Buenos Ayres, 911.

CORRESPONDENCE.

Italy and the Bible, 3.
The churches and the working classes, 20, 61.
Introductory lectures at New College, 20.
Proposed deputation to Lord John Russell on education, 41.

On educational projects, ib.
Public health and centralization, ib.; 750, 761, 780, 801.

The Bible and the people, 41.
Lectures to working men, ib.
Proposed anti-church-rate movement, 61.
National Public School Association, ib.

The Government cure for Highland destitution, 62, 140.
The Electric Review and the invasion panic, 102.

Dissenting principles and the next election, ib.
The Maynooth Grant, 119.
The Militia Bill, 140, 181, 301, 378, 942.

Deputation to Sir George Grey on the Highlands, 140.
Presentation to the Rev. R. Massie, ib.
Collective wisdom, 160.

The state of the churches, 180, 201, 220.
Ministers' money, Ireland, 220, 941.
New College—expulsion of three students, 240, 539, 722.

The bookselling controversy, 280, 900.
Mistake as to homoeopathy, 301.

The municipal bow at the world's image of Christianity, 302.
Electoral tests, separation of Church and State, 339.

Mr. George Thompson, M.P., and his Nonconformist constituents, 378, 399.
Church-rate seizures and the Anti-state-church Association, 460.

Shilling subscription for European freedom, 500.
The Dawn Institute, 580.
Friendly addresses to the French people, 599.

Dr. Elton and the reviewer of the "Life of Roger Williams," 620.
The new Crystal Palace and Sabbath services, 640.

Emigration to Australia, 780, 801.
Extraordinary presence of mind, 801.
An impostor, 821.

International addresses, 840.
The Norwich Conference, 860, 880, 900.
The Sunday-school Union and the Crystal Palace, 860.

Codification of commercial laws, ib.
The Congregational Union and the Crystal Palace, ib., 880.
Marriage Law Reform, 880.

The circulation of the Nonconformist, ib., 900.
The Upper Clapton Chapel, 900, 942.
Homoeopathy and the medical profession, 900.

Oaths, ib., 920.
Marriage with a deceased wife's sister, 920.
Another addition to the British Empire, 941.

The Madia and the Duke of Tuscany, ib.
New school inspectors, ib.
The Budget, 959, 979.

The Free-trade division, 959.

MISCELLANEOUS PAPERS.

Our national defences, 48.
The late Alfred Augustus Fry, 62.
The Militia Bill and the press, 147.

Nonconformists and the general election, 178, 198, 231.
An old scholar's peep at Mill-hill Grammar-school, 501.

Jenkins and Jericho, 577.
Proposals for settling the Church-rate question, 718.

"Uncle Tom" and his friends, 828.
Homoeopathy and the medical school, 858.
Mrs. Beecher Stowe and her family and clients, ib.
South Australia, 869.
The late Daniel Webster, 888.
The Patriot and the Crystal Palace, 897, 918.

SPIRIT OF THE PRESS.

Examiner.—The impossible 7,439,216,28; the progress of the tyranny, 48.

Spectator.—Good titlbat fishing in Downing-street, 28; constitutional housewifery, 68; give a margin, 89; a new goods carrying clause, 628.

The Economist.—The Turkish loan and the Crystal Palace, 869.

Times.—An Irish landlord of "the olden times," 68; the "Amazon" benefit at Drury-lane, 88; vindication of the liberty of the press, 111; Free-trade and popular holidays, 287; proposed revival of Convocation, 628.

Leader.—The trial of the "Orinoco," 88.

Daily News.—The English "Fakredeen," 288.

LITERATURE.

REVIEWS.

PERIODICALS, 11, 30, 92-113, 171, 273, 452, 631, 732, 791, 871, 912, 971.

The Introductory Lectures delivered at the opening of New College, 12.
Hengstenberg on the Revelation of St. John, 31, 1010.

Lady Felicia, by H. Cockton, 31.
Kavanagh's Women of Christianity, 51.
Ware's Sketches of European Capital, 52.

Whipple's Literature and Life, ib.
The Bible of every Land, ib.
The Pathway of the Fawn, by Mrs. T. K. Hervey, 71.

Dr. Bryce's Ten Years of the Church of Scotland, 71.
Mills and Carr on the Local Ministry, ib.
Books for the Young, 93.

Pulte's Homoeopathic Domestic Physician, ib.
Dr. Smith's Dictionary of Greek and Norman Geography, 131.

Lowell's Poetical Works, 132.
The Two Families, 152.
The Successful Merchant, by W. Arthur, 191.

A Woman's Journey round the World, ib.
The Works of Andrew Fuller, 212.
Gutzlaff's Life of Taou-Thwang, ib.

Dr. J. Pye Smith's Geology, ib.
The Lamps of the Temple, 231.
Letters from Italy and Vienna, 292.

Edwards's Charity and its Fruits, ib.
Pasley's Pauperism and the Poor-laws, 313, 331.

Mason's Pictures of Life in Mexico, 313.
Theobald's Statement of Facts, 332.
Analytical Greek Lexicon, ib.

Newman's Regal Rome, 393.
The Restoration of Belief, 412, 991.
The Autobiography of William Jordan, 431.

Report of the Commissioners for the Exhibition of 1851, 452.
The School for Fathers, by T. Gwynne, 472.
The Lily of St. Paul's, ib.

The Court and the Desert, ib.
Alice Offley, ib.
Stuart's Commentary on the Proverbs, 492.

Dr. Cox's Biblical Antiquities, ib.
Barnes's Notes on the Revelation, ib.
The Emphatic New Testament, ib.

Bayley's Lectures on Inspiration, ib.
Dr. Hanna's Memoirs of Chalmers, 510.
Records of the School of Mines, &c., 553.

Zincke's School of the Future, ib.
Kingsley's Sermons on National Subjects, 593.
Tower Church Sermons, ib.

James's Course of Faith, ib.
Dr. Cumming's Voices of the Dead, ib.
Edwards's Heroes of the Bible, ib.

The Republic of Plato, 613.
Haldane's Memoirs of R. and J. A. Haldane, 671.
The Squanders of Castle Squander, by W. Carleton, 690.

Lalor's Money and Morals, 712.
Butler's Sermons, ib.
The Poetical Works of Oliver Wendell Holmes, 772.

Works on Homoeopathy, 773.
The Treasure Seeker's Daughter, by H. Lawrence, 812.

Our Iron Roads, by F. S. Williams, ib.
Hazlitt's Life of Napoleon, 831.
Macfarlane's Catacombs of Rome, ib.

Vinet's Pastoral Theology, 851.
The People's Palace and the Religious World, ib.
Carlen's Ivar, ib.

Giffillan's Martyrs, Heroes, and Bards, of the Scottish Covenant, 891.
Analysis and Summary of New Testament History, 892.

Horsford's Four Months in England, 913.
Cousin's Modern Philosophy, 932.
Tennemann's History of Philosophy, ib.

Fourier's Passions of the Human Soul, ib.
Works and Pamphlets on Wellington, ib.
Holyoake's Reasoner, &c., 952.

Discussion between Rev. H. Townley and G. J. Shirley, 992.

Alton Locke, ib.
Castle Daloraine, by M. P. Smith, ib.
Sealsfield's Cabin Boy, ib.

Webb's Pilgrims of New England, ib.
Müller's Christian Doctrine of Sin, 1010.

The Colloquies of Edward Osborne, 1031.
The Life of Mr. Andrew Jack, 1032.

BRIEF NOTICES.

The Church of England in the Reigns of the Stuarts, 12.
The Girlhood of Shakespeare's Heroines, 32.

Kitt's Palestine, ib.
Things for all Lands and all Times, by the Rev. D. Thomas, ib.

The Dartford Monument, ib.
Chamber's Papers for the People, 53.
Stoughton's Life of Doddridge, 72.

Hughes's Geography, 132.
The Congregational Year Book, ib.
The Post Magazine Almanack, ib.

Louis Napoleon, the Patriot or the Conspirator? ib.
Wilks's Half-Century, 152.

The Scarlet Letter, by N. Hawthorne, ib.
Dymond's Essays, 172.
Woman, by the Rev. A. Monod, ib.

Fletcher's Constantine, ib.
The Domestic Habits of the People, 191.
The Life of General Washington, 192.

The Portrait Gallery, ib.
The Day Spring, 232.
Lee's Anecdotes of Animals, ib.

Hinds's Solar System, ib.
Chambers's Pocket Miscellany, ib.
The Pervert in High Life, ib.

Dr. Hitchcock's Geology, 254.
Calvin's Commentaries on the Romans, ib.
Surrenne's French and English Dictionary, 292.

Bentley's Health and Wealth, ib.
Leask's Beauties of the Bible, ib.
Balfour's Sketches of English Literature, ib.

The Family Economist, &c., 293.
McCombie's Use and Abuse, ib.
Scott's Commentary, 332.

Phillips's Atlas, ib.
Huc's Travels in Tartary, &c., 394.
Dr. Mackay's Popular Delusions, ib.

The Homilist, by the Rev. D. Thomas, ib.
Michaud's History of the Crusades, 412.
Spence's Religion for Mankind, 431.

Arbousset's Tour, ib.
Sermons, by D. Katterns, 432.
Home Truths for Home Peace, ib.

Higgins's Researches in the Solar Realm, ib.
Publications of the Religious Tract Society, ib., 691, 1011.

Cheever's Christian Life, 473.
Dr. Cox's Female Scripture Biography, ib.
The Australian Gold-diggings, ib.

The Exhibition Lay, 493.
The Child's Grammar, by the Rev. E. Thring, ib.
Byron's Sketches, ib.

Boswell's Journal, 534.
Selections of Tunes from the Psalmist, ib.
Wright's Manual of History, ib.

Bonomi's Nineveh, 554.
Bishop's Cookery Book, ib.
Brewer's Guide to English Composition, ib.

Dr. Elton's Life of Roger Williams, 614.
Neale's Narrative of a Residence in Siam, 633.
Cooper's Free Church of Ancient Christendom, ib.

Bassett's Bible Gleanings, 652.
The Avenger, by S. Currier, ib.
The Drama of a Life, by J. A. Langford, ib.

The Rhymer's Family, by T. Watson, 653.
The Celt, the Roman, and the Saxon, by T. Wright, ib.

Macfarlane's Life of Marlborough, ib.
The Illustrated Book of Scottish Songs, ib.
Miller's Picturesque Sketches of London, ib.

Pfeiffer's Visit to Iceland, &c., ib.
Adams's Guide to the Lake District, 634.
Belgium and the Rhine, ib.

Crowe's Night Side of Nature, 672.
After Thoughts, by H. N. Barnett, ib.
Wekey's Hungarian Grammar, ib.

James's Moralism and Christianity, and Lectures and Miscellanies, 691.
Traill's Canadian Crusoes, ib.
Geldart's Love a Reality, ib.

Switzerland and Savoy, 773.
Smith's Rhine and the Reformation, 831.
Bungener's Council of Trent, ib.

Works on Gold and the Gold Districts, ib.
Barrett on Emigration, 832.
Foster's History of the Priory and Gate of St. John, 852.

Cassell's Popular Educator, 892.
The History of France, ib.
Euclid's Elements, ib.

The Congregational Lectures, 1011.
Almanacks and Diaries for 1853, ib.
Tilt's Elements of Health, ib.

Davies's Young Wife's Guide, ib.
Pfeiffer's Holy Land, &c., ib.
Muston's Israel of the Alps, ib.

Wilkes's United States Exploring Expedition, ib.
Cudworth's Sermon, ib.
Mrs. H. Beecher Stowe's Works, 1012.

The World to Come, by Rev. J. Cochrane, 1032.

GLEANINGS.—33, 54, 73, 94, 115, 133, 153, 173, 193, 213, 233, 254, 274, 294, 314, 333, 353, 373, 394, 413, 433, 453, 473, 493, 512, 534, 574, 594, 614, 634, 654, 674, 693, 714, 734, 754, 793, 814, 833, 853, 872, 893, 913, 933, 953, 972, 993, 1013, 1033.

AIDS TO REFLECTION.—33, 73, 793.

LITERARY MISCELLANY.—32, 53, 72, 114, 153, 173, 192, 213, 233, 293, 314, 432, 554, 633, 672, 692, 713, 753, 773, 793, 813, 832, 852, 933, 1012, 1052.

POETRY.—54, 94, 134, 193, 295, 692, 813, 853, 931.